Don't Torment Children

by trying to force them to take castor oil. You don't like it yourself. Why force it down the throats of sensitive children who struggle against it.

KASTOL is nothing but castor oil, devoid of its unpleasant taste. It is as pleasant to take as honey. No one objects to a dose of KASTOL. Physicians prescribe castor oil knowing well its excellent medical properties. KASTOL possesses all the medicinal properties of the oil. It is not affected in any way, except the taste. The most particular people take it. 25 and 50 cent bottles.

Handsome Bicycles

The Waverley Wheels are handsome. You want a bicycle that looks well. There is something in having a mount which you are not ashamed of. The Waverley is a clean-cut handsome wheel. One of its charms is the half-nickled front fork, which distinguishes it from ordinary wheels. The pedals are different from other makes. There is no ugly bolt projection to strike against obstacles. A nickled band encircles the entire pedal. It can be changed from rat trap to rubber pedals in one minute.

Waverley Bicycles

are not an experiment. They are wheels which have a fine reputation behind them in the United States.
